9. [] LIAISON Met with David Shaw, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, and explained discovery requests for Church Committee material which had arisen in the Halkin v. Helms suit. I asked Mr. Kaul if the figure he had given us concerning the annual amount of "confidential funds" expended by the FBI is a classified figure. I explained that I had included the figure in a Memorandum for the Record regarding a recent conversation with Larry Hammond, Deputy Assistant Attorney General, Department of Justice with regard to H.R. 12171, the "Federal Accounting and Auditing Act of 1978." Mr. Kaul said that the $70,000 figure is a matter of public record and therefore not classified.

Norvill Jones, Chief of Staff

[redacted] Acting Legislative Counsel

5. [redacted] Earlier, I had supplied the details of the finding to Norvill Jones, and on his recommendation, the Director made an overview of the finding, what it was designed to accomplish and ticked off briefly the programs involved. The only question was raised by Senator Case and had to do with the terrorist finding and the support to foreign intelligence services. Specifically, Case was interested in how you determine a terrorist from a freedom fighter and whether the latitude for support of foreign service was too large. It is believed that the Senator's concern was substantially abated as the Director explained how the perspectives would assure that these determinations were made by policymakers in the Executive Branch.

6. Norvill Jones took notes of the briefing.
